

Christian Service Form

The corporal works of mercy give us concrete examples to accomplish Christian service. Christ said to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, visit the sic, shelter the homeless, visit the imprisoned and bury the dead... Matthew 25: 35-36

Reflection Questions:

1. What was the project you participated in?
2. Whom did this project ultimately serve? Was money raised for a particular group or cause, was something built for a group or individual, etc., please explain?
3. Find a scripture verse that correlates with/explains why this project was done. Explain why you think this particular verse speaks about/defines this project.
4. Describe how you grew or changed in your relationships, both with others and with God, as a result of this experience.
5. Looking at the "bigger picture", explain how this experience will affect your life, the lives of those you served and your faith development.
