The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ A Scriptural Reflection

Flesh and Blood

The intimate bond that unites families is well described by the phrase "flesh and blood." "How can you treat your own flesh and blood so harshly?" a father might ask his son. "I can't give up my baby for adoption; she's my own flesh and blood," a daughter may say to her mother. "I love you as though you were my own flesh and blood," a brother might say to a stepbrother. It is as though our families are an inseparable part of us. Even those who have traumatic or abusive experiences with family members recognize the depth of emotional and spiritual connection we have with our families.

In Jesus' words to the crowds in today's Gospel we hear him talk about our participation in the Eucharist as a sharing in his own flesh and blood. Through the Eucharist Christ himself dwells in us. His divine and eternal life courses through our veins. Like a family gathered at table, we become more and more intimately connected with Christ and one another. As Paul tells us, "We, though many, are one body" (1 Corinthians 10:17), united as members of Christ's own flesh and blood.

For The Life Of The World

Within the Body of Christ today, many are suffering as Jesus once did, and the suffering of one of our "brothers and sisters" should be of deep concern to us. We who partake of the Body and Blood of Christ must be prepared to be broken and poured out as Jesus was "for the life of the world" (John 6:51). We must become willing to suffer ourselves if it will benefit a member of our own "flesh and blood."

As you receive Holy Communion this week, open your heart to the intimate connections that unite us as family within the Body of Christ. Then reflect on how those bonds will affect the way you treat your own flesh and blood this week.

Around the Parish...

Letter recently mailed to parishioners:

May 29, 2020

Dear friends of St. Mary Magdalene Church,

This letter is to inform you that I will retire as your pastor effective June 30, 2020. While this has been a difficult decision, it is one with which I am at peace as result of much prayer and in consultation with Bishops McElroy and Dolan.

Almost fifteen years ago when I was assigned to St. Mary Magdalene, I had hoped to run the good race with my "eyes fixed on Jesus the author and finisher of our faith" until the mandatory retirement age of seventy-five. However, with increased health challenges I realize that it is now time to hand over the baton to a younger fresher runner. I am pleased to announce that Father Ed McNulty will be your new pastor effective July 1, 2020. He is an intelligent man and a fine priest and I know that he will serve you well.

That is not the only change for this parish community, however. Fr. John Farley will conclude his ministry here at St. Mary Magdalene effective June 30, 2020. We are thankful for his service to our parish and wish him well in his next assignment.

Leaving St. Mary Magdalene is difficult for me. No group of people could have been more supportive to me during my tenure here. I don't believe I have ever felt as close to a church family as I do here. I wish each of you the very best as you continue to strive to love as Jesus did. As you have always done for me, encourage and help your new pastor. Be certain that you are in my prayers.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Steve

Changes Around The Parish

- Fr. Steve has been our pastor for the last 15 years and we wish him all the best in retirement. Unfortunately, under the current circumstances, we are unable to provide him with a proper farewell. We hope to hold a reception in his honor in the coming months, as soon as we are safely able.
- Fr. John Farley's assignment at St. Mary Magdalene will also be ending on June 30, 2020. We want to thank him for his year of service to our faith community. We wish him blessings in his next endeavor.

Prayer to Make a "Spiritual Communion"

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

Saint Thomas Aquinas defined "spiritual communion" as "an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Holy Sacrament and a loving embrace as though we had already received Him. Saint Teresa of Avila wrote: "When you cannot receive Communion and cannot attend Mass, you can make a spiritual communion, which is a most beneficial practice; by it the love of God will be greatly impressed on you."

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

LIVING STEWARDSHIP NOW

The Christian Steward

In the lives of disciples, something else must come before the practice of stewardship. They need a flash of insight – a certain way of seeing – by which they view the world and their relationship to it in a fresh, new light. "The world is charged with the grandeur of God," Gerald Manley Hopkins exclaims; more than anything else, it may be the grandeur in all that is that sets people of the path of Christian stewardship.

Stewardship – A Disciple's Response.

*Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do,
do everything for the glory of God.
(1 Corinthians 10:31)*

*Serve one another through love, bear one another's burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ.

What is it that makes people grateful for God's gifts – to see life in a whole new way? For some it is a recovery from illness. For others the birth of a baby, or the death of a loved one. Others see God's generous gifts in the beauty of the world that surrounds us, from the smallest flowers to the grandest vistas. For me it is the amazing vastness of the universe – big almost beyond human comprehension. The power in the stars, the emptiness of the black void, the almost eternalness of the past and future of the universe.

I, with my life span (if I'm lucky) of 85 years, fade into insignificance in the face of all this. But God's love for me, in creating me and the entire universe, gives significance – and purpose to my life.

Christian Stewardship helps me connect my gratefulness for what God has created with my question about why I'm here: to be the good steward of God's gifts, cultivate them for the Kingdom, and share them with others.

- Archbishop Thomas Murphy

June is Alzheimer’s & Brain Awareness Month

Alzheimer’s disease is a progressive, degenerative disorder that attacks the brain’s nerve cells, or neurons, resulting in loss of memory, thinking and language skills, and behavioral changes. It is the most common cause of dementia, or loss of intellectual function, among people aged 65 and older. More than 5 million Americans live with Alzheimer’s Disease. By 2050 this number could rise to as high as 16 million. It is the sixth leading cause of death in the United States. 15 million Americans provide unpaid care for people with Alzheimer’s. In 2016 these caregivers provided an estimated 18.2 billion hours of care valued at over $230 billion. (Statistics from the Alzheimer’s Association).
