

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to the crowds: "This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come."

He said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade." With many such parables he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it. Without parables he did not speak to them, but to his own disciples he explained everything in private.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

I watch most of the children in my three brothers' families growing into what is called "emerging adulthood." It must be very difficult at times for parents, only being able to watch, hope, and pray as their children start to move away from home and begin to make their own way into the world. Will they be safe, make the right choices, be happy?

Making use of images from nature, scripture reminds us that God gives the growth, whether it is to mighty cedars springing from small shoots, ripened grain sprouting from the blade, or a fully grown mustard plant emerging from the tiniest of seeds to offer its large branches as housing for the birds.

Such poetic language calls us to reflect on the mystery of the kingdom of God, whose seeds were found in the various covenants extended to Noah, Abraham, Moses, and David, and then fully enfleshed in Jesus so many millennia ago. This kingdom continues to sprout in our day, often where least expected.

Sometimes it breaks through like a mighty cedar, but more often it is a quieter blossoming, suddenly emerging like stalks of grain, or the first signs of life carried in a mother's body. I am sure God has worried for all the children of every age who have filled the earth. The kingdom of life won by Christ continues to have the power to carry all God's sons and daughters into the loving arms of the God Jesus taught us to call Father.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend as we celebrate Father's Day I would like to take this opportunity to share with you a brief passage from the Apostolic Exhortation Familiaris Consortio of Pope John Paul II in which he writes about the importance of the role of Fatherhood in the family. "Within the conjugal and family communion-community, the man is called upon to live his gift and role as husband and father. In his wife he sees the fulfillment of God's intention: 'It is not good that the man should be alone, I will make him a helper fit for him,' and he makes his own the cry of Adam, the first husband: 'This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh....' Love for his wife as mother of their children and love for the children themselves are for the man the natural way of understanding and fulfilling his own fatherhood. Above all where social and cultural conditions so easily encourage a father to be less concerned with his family or at any rate less involved in the work of education, efforts must be made to restore socially the conviction that the place and task of the father in and for the family is of unique and irreplaceable importance. As experience teaches, the absence of a father causes psychological and moral imbalance and notable difficulties in family relationships, as does, in contrary circumstances, the oppressive presence of a father, especially where there still prevails the phenomenon of 'machismo,' or a wrong superiority of male prerogatives which humiliates women and inhibits the development of healthy family relationships. In revealing and in reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God, a man is called upon to ensure the harmonious and united development of all the members of the family: he will perform this task by exercising generous responsibility for the life conceived under the heart of the mother, by a more solicitous commitment to education, a task he shares with his wife, by work which is never a cause of division in the family but promotes its unity and stability, and by means of the witness he gives of an adult Christian life which effectively introduces the children into the living experience of Christ and the Church."

Next weekend our parish in union with Catholic parishes throughout the world will be participating in the annual Peter's Pence Collection. Contributions to the Peter's Pence Collection enable the Holy Father to respond with immediate emergency assistance to the most disadvantaged throughout the world —those who suffer as a result of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Your contribution will allow the Holy Father to respond with timely and effective emergency assistance to our suffering brothers and sisters throughout the world. If you have not already done so I invite you to use the contribution envelope and return your donation by either dropping it in the collection basket next week or by mailing it directly to our parish office.

Fr. Ed McNulty,
Pastor

Faith Direct e-Giving

With the arrival of Spring, I'd like to invite you to join Faith Direct, our parish's electronic giving program. Our to-do lists can get lengthy during this season, but Faith Direct's eGiving program will give you one less thing to remember each week--no more envelopes to find before you go to Mass. Getting started with eGiving is easy. Here are the ways to sign up.

STEWARDSHIP

Sow The Seed

Mustard. What does the word bring to your mind? Probably a thick, yellow, spicy sauce in a jar. In today's Gospel Jesus talks about another kind of mustard. This black mustard plant was not cultivated in Jesus' time and was considered a weed. Like all varieties of mustard, the black mustard plant grows from a very tiny seed, no bigger than two millimeters in diameter. Yet, given the right conditions, it can grow up to nine feet tall—certainly tall enough for birds to perch and nest in. Jesus says that the reign of God is like the mustard plant. It starts with the tiniest of seeds in the ground. Sun and rain do their work and a large plant shoots up, almost as big as a tree! So it is with our discipleship and our stewardship. If we start in even the smallest way to trust in God, that leads to more commitment in our discipleship. We nurture our spiritual growth through prayer, the sacraments, Bible study, and adult classes, which leads to a stronger faith. That in turn helps us to live less fearfully and selfishly. The use of our spare time, personal skills and abilities, and financial resources takes on a different meaning. These are the fruits of our discipleship to share with others. Time and time again, those among us who have made their commitment to a more faithful discipleship tell us they become more generous stewards of what God has given them. The more they give the more they want to give. They have found that when you cease to holding on tightly to yourself and your possessions, more blessings come your way—not solutions to all problems or sudden riches, but a much deeper sense of God's presence and true peace of heart.

Living Stewardship Now

If you are not committed to a stewardship way of life, why not start right now? Begin small, but make your commitments and persevere with them. Give some of your free time to other people. Offer your skills to your parish or a charity. Give money to your parish regularly, and make donations to good causes you choose.

Happy Father's Day

Prayer For Fathers

Heavenly Father,
Thank you for the gift of a father who has been an inspiration through his love and dedication. Just as you sent your Son to show the world your love for us as a father, we pray that you will send your Spirit upon Dad that he may be strengthened as he strives to guide and support his family. Amen.

Peter's Pence Collection

Next week we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Envelopes are located at the entrance to the church. Please be generous. For more information, visit <http://obolodisanpietro.va/en.html>.

Birthline of San Diego Thanks You

Thank you for your generosity of much needed items and financial support.

Children's Liturgy Adult Volunteers Needed!

The number of children who attend Children's Liturgy is increasing. For this program to continue successfully, more adult volunteers are needed for every Sunday at the 9:00am Mass.

If you attend this mass, please consider helping out once a month.

Just One More Minister Is Needed...
Are You the One?

Communion To The Homebound Ministry

The Eucharistic Ministry to the Homebound has been growing in popularity and we could use additional Eucharistic Ministers.

- Deliver the Most Holy Eucharist to two or three of St. Mary Magdalene's homebound parishioners once every third week.
- Serve monthly as Eucharistic Minister at a local Retirement Home's Sunday service.

The benefits are amazing! These parishioners, who face logistical challenges in receiving the Sacrament, eagerly anticipate and deeply appreciate your visit - even if your service is once every few months (FLEXIBLE scheduling). At the same time, as a Eucharistic Minister, personal growth in faith is beyond what you could ever imagine!

No experience required, just an interest. Training will come later.

If you would like more information, have any questions, or perhaps you hear a calling, or simply curious, please contact Carrie Layton at (619) 913-9711 or Alex Warner at (619) 519-2361.

Middle School Youth Ministry

The Middle School Youth Ministry is seeking adult volunteers for Monday night youth groups! We meet on the 1st & 3rd Mondays of each month from 7:00pm to 8:00pm in the Youth Center

Prayer for the Deployed Military

As a faith community let's pray for all those who serve our country during these troubled times.

We pray especially for those of our parish who are deployed or will soon be deployed. We also thank God for those who have returned safely.

Let us pray:

Almighty God, be their constant companion and strength in every adversity. May they always experience your presence, love and comfort.
