

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 14, 2024

Jesus Sends His Disciples Out Two By Two

Jesus summoned the Twelve to him, he began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over impure spirits.

These were his instructions: "Take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in your belts. Wear sandals but not an extra shirt. Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that town. And if any place will not welcome you or listen to you, leave that place and shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them."

They went out and preached that people should repent. They drove out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil and healed them.

(Mark 6:7-13)

St. Mary Magdalene Mission Statement

We, the Eucharistic Community of St. Mary Magdalene, are called to conversion in Jesus Christ.

Our community life and worship are based on the Bible, the Sacraments, and the teachings of the Catholic Church.

Living the love of Christ impacts our moral, intellectual, and religious life, and makes us a caring community that brings hope to our families, neighborhood, and society.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

Traveling by plane these days calls for careful preparation. One airline recently posted notice that if your bag weighs more than fifty pounds, there is an additional fee of fifty dollars. Add in the restrictions on carry-on baggage: no liquids more than three ounces, no bags beyond a certain size. It encourages you to travel light.

Jesus is issuing his own travel instructions to those he chose to work with him. First, he gives them "authority over unclean spirits" (Mark 6:7), a sharing in the authority the Father has given him for the work of spreading the gospel that the reign of evil is over and the reign of God is beginning.

Then, Jesus gets practical: Take nothing but a walking stick—to be used in climbing hills, driving off wild animals, or pushing away snakes found on the paths. No food, no sack to hold extra clothing—not even a second tunic—or to carry off anything from the towns you visit, and no money! Permission granted to wear sandals.

Finally, when you get to a place, do not look for the most comfortable lodging, take what comes first and be content there. The focus is clear: Stay on message, God's kingdom is at hand. Repent and believe. And show it in action: Deliver the sick and possessed from what burdens them. If people don't like the message? Move on.

Over two thousand years later, Jesus, risen Lord, continues to call ordinary folk. Back then it was some fishermen, a tax collector, a political activist; now it's workers from every way of life, every profession and job. People raising families, singles, the elderly, anyone willing to confess that God is at work in our world, that evil will not have the last word, and that all creation finds its deepest meaning in Christ.

—James A. Wallace, C.Ss.R.

STEWARDSHIP

Proper Balance

Jesus knew that in order to continue ministering to people he and his disciples needed occasional time alone. So he took them off “to a deserted place” to rest. Are you over-working, over-volunteering, over-extending yourself? A good stewardship of your time requires balancing activities with proper rest and prayerfulness. St. Benedict (485–547A.D.), the founder of many monasteries in Italy, knew that living in a community is a challenge, so he wrote his now famous Rule. The Rule was a set of instructions for the monks to ensure that they could pray, work and live in harmony. Its short chapters cover everything from how to live the spiritual life to how to live obediently and humbly—and how to discipline someone who is not! Benedict also gives instruction about the daily work of the monks and how to manage a monastic community effectively. The Rule is such a balanced blend of moderate and reasonable instructions that many new religious orders adopted some form of Benedict’s original. The key to the Rule is that a monk may not allow any one or two activities to take over all his time. The daily life of a monastery requires that everyone participate in an orderly balance of prayer, work, and rest. This kind of balance is much harder for lay people to achieve by themselves, when the demands of the workplace and family seem non-stop. One busy mom uses her bathroom moments to pray; a man who takes many business trips prays as he drives. Parents caring for a disabled son rely on the help of friends for a necessary time-out. An overworked single mother takes a nap every day while her children do their homework. It is difficult to pull away to refocus and refuel, but it is essential for what God is calling you to do in your life.

Living Stewardship Now

Pick a ministry that really appeals to you. If training is not provided, ask the leaders to help you get up to speed. Decide to serve for at least one year, and serve that year faithfully.

Coffee and Donuts
Volunteers Needed Beginning August 2024
Every Sunday after the 9:00am Mass

Join your fellow parishioners in the Conference Room for coffee and conversation.

Families are needed to keep this great community building event alive. To help, scan the QR code and pick your week or contact the Parish Office at (619) 276-1041.

Summer Reading

“My Heart Will Triumph” by Mirjana Soldo

During the summer months, you are invited to read this amazing book and then we will join fellow parishioners to discuss our thoughts on the book that the Vatican views on the apparitions, and hear from people who have been to Medjugorje.

Date: Saturday, September 14, 2024
Time: 9:30am -10:30am
Place: Conference Room

Mirjana Soldo was only sixteen years old when she and five other children saw a mysterious woman on a hillside near the village of Medjugorje, ex-Yugoslavia. The woman, who possessed an extraordinary beauty and grace, identified herself as the Virgin Mary. In her autobiography, Mirjana tells the story of Medjugorje through her own eyes - the same eyes that reportedly gaze upon the most revered woman in history.

Culture of Life – Summer Reading Book

Join the Culture of Life Ministry and read “Theology of the Body for Beginners” by Christopher West – A basic introduction to Pope John Paul II’s Sexual Revolution.

Nine in ten children aborted have parents that are unmarried. We therefore need to understand why our sexual ethics are broken if we want to end abortion.

In addition, watch Live Action Video Series: “The Truth about Sex”: www.liveaction.org/the-truth-about-sex.

Join us to discuss at our next meeting.

Date: Saturday, September 14, 2024
Time: 9:30am -10:30am
Place: Conference Room

Culture of Life meets every 3rd Saturday during the year with a break in the summer.

Birthline Next Week

We need:

- Pull-ups, sizes 2T-3T and 3T - 4T
- Small packs of Baby Wipes (56 wipes)
- 8 oz. size Baby Lotion
- 8 oz. size Baby Shampoo
- 8 oz. size Baby body wash
- Diaper cream / ointment

Communion for the Homebound

If you have an incapacitated loved one who is unable to attend Mass and would like to receive The Holy Eucharist at home, please contact the parish office at (619) 276-1041.

Educating on the Nature and Dignity of Women

Endow seeks to educate women toward a more profound understanding of the God-given dignity through study in a small group of faith and friendship. Endow believes that unpacking our rich Catholic heritage together, the heart and mind can experience deep transformation through intimate relations in a small group setting.

With that in mind, the Church of St. Mary Magdalene invites you to join us for and Endow Study entitled Letter to Women. Pope St. John Paul II penned this letter for all women. Written for the occasion of the 1995 Fourth United Nations Conference on Women, The letter is the perfect introduction to the Christian concept of women and her indispensable role in the Church, the family, society and the world.

Date: Every Thursday, August 15 to October 3, 2024

Time: 6:30pm - 8:00pm

Place: Conference Room at St. Mary Magdalene

Please purchase the Letter to Women study at the Endow website by scanning the QR code. For more information contact Diane Kenney at dianekenney@att.net with questions and to RSVP if you plan on attending.
