

Church of St. Mary Magdalene

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 21, 2024

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them.

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Living God's Word

Admittedly, there are those times when the way of Jesus can be just as frightening to us as no wisdom at all. Yet if you seek a way that offers light, test his way. In small pieces, one word at a time, one small slice of life at a time, try it out. If it does become light for you, stay with it and explore yet more of it. No one has ever come to all of holiness in a day.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Scriptural Reflection

Reflecting on God's Word

Often we are unable to identify the truth in our lives. Is our passion love or lust? Is our financial security greed or wise preparation? Is the raising of our children good discipline or carving them into our own image and likeness? Is our religiosity superstition or faithfulness to the tradition? Do our dreams nurture the Kingdom of God or the Tower of Babel? In other words, is it from God or is it from the Other Side? So we look about us, and because our neighbors' lives seem little different from our own, we put into any self-help harbor that seems able to shelter us from aimless drifting.

Most of us, I suspect, wonder if there is anyone who knows the deepest truths, whether they be about life or about our world or even about ourselves. So we find ourselves gathering about Jesus, though even then some may do so half-heartedly—at times trusting that he will have some sort of answer and at other times wondering if he indeed does, yet not knowing where else to go. And so we gather, like sheep around a shepherd, simply because every other voice has been heard and found wanting.

Educating on the Nature and Dignity of Women

Endow seeks to educate women toward a more profound understanding of the God-given dignity through study in a small group of faith and friendship.

Endow believes that unpacking our rich Catholic heritage together, the heart and mind can experience deep transformation through intimate relations in a small group setting.

With that in mind, the Church of St. Mary Magdalene invites you to join us for an Endow Study entitled Letter to Women. Pope St. John Paul II penned this letter for all women. Written for the occasion of the 1995 Fourth United Nations Conference on Women, The letter is the perfect introduction to the Christian concept of women and her indispensable role in the Church, the family, society and the world.

Date: Every Thursday, August 15 to October 3, 2024

Time: 6:30pm - 8:00pm

Place: Conference Room at St. Mary Magdalene

Please purchase the Letter to Women study at the Endow website by scanning the QR code. For more information contact Diane Kenney at dianekenney@att.net with questions and to RSVP if you plan on attending.

Summer Reading

"My Heart Will Triumph" by Mirjana Soldo

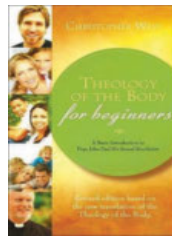

During the summer months, you are invited to read this amazing book and then we will join fellow parishioners to discuss our thoughts on the book that the Vatican views on the apparitions, and hear from people who have been to Medjugorje.

Date: Saturday, September 14, 2024
Time: 9:30am -10:30am
Place: Conference Room

Mirjana Soldo was only sixteen years old when she and five other children saw a mysterious woman on a hillside near the village of Medjugorje, ex-Yugoslavia. The woman, who possessed an extraordinary beauty and grace, identified herself as the Virgin Mary. In her autobiography, Mirjana tells the story of Medjugorje through her own eyes - the same eyes that reportedly gaze upon the most revered woman in history.

In addition, watch Live Action Video Series: "The Truth about Sex": www.liveaction.org/the-truth-about-sex.

Join us to discuss at our next meeting.

Mission Co-Op Next Weekend

One of the diocesan efforts to promote mission awareness and spiritual union with mission efforts is the diocesan Missionary Cooperation Plan (MCP). Because of the many needs of new churches in underdeveloped countries, needs that are as urgent today as in any other period in history, each diocese in the United States invites representatives of missionary dioceses, religious congregations, and lay missionary organizations to visit parishes, usually during the summer months.

The assignment of missionaries to the individual parishes is coordinated by the Mission Office. The representatives speak at Sunday Mass in order to animate the Church in our missionary task by sharing their work and faith experiences. Mutual support through understanding and prayer is the basis for financial collaboration. The hospitality provided by pastors, parish staff, and all the parishioners build up the Church as the living Body of Christ present in the entire world.

Through the generous self-giving of many faithful throughout our Diocese these missionary dioceses and other evangelizing groups received help to support their ongoing work in sharing the Gospel.

The Missionary Cooperation Plan (MCP) facilitates the access of missionaries (Orders of Missionary men and women, lay missionary societies and designated Mission Dioceses) to the parishes of the diocese to seek help n for their projects. In this way parishioners hear directly from missionaries about their work and the peoples that they serve and learn how donating generously is also participation in the mission work.

Yellow envelopes can be found at the entrance of the church.
